

Adolescent Addiction Access (AAA) Program

Increasing the Accessibility & Availability of Best Practice Substance Use Disorder (SUD) Clinical Services for Indiana Youth and Families

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHIATRY

Riley Hospital for Children
Indiana University Health

317-278-8434
aaaprogram@iupui.edu

What Services Does AAA Provide?

Free provider-to-provider helpline for Indiana providers caring for youth (aged 17 or younger) with Substance Use Disorders (SUD)

Timely, convenient access to evidence-based patient care services, including telehealth services delivered by our team

Referral support with up-to-date community-based SUD resources and supports

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHIATRY

Riley Hospital for Children
Indiana University Health

317-278-8434
aaaprogram@iupui.edu

When Should I Call AAA?

What medications and doses are appropriate for youth with SUD?

What level of care is appropriate for my patient? Where can I find services?

What ongoing treatment or mental health follow-up is recommended?

Is there someone who can assist with a diagnostic evaluation and treatment plan?

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHIATRY

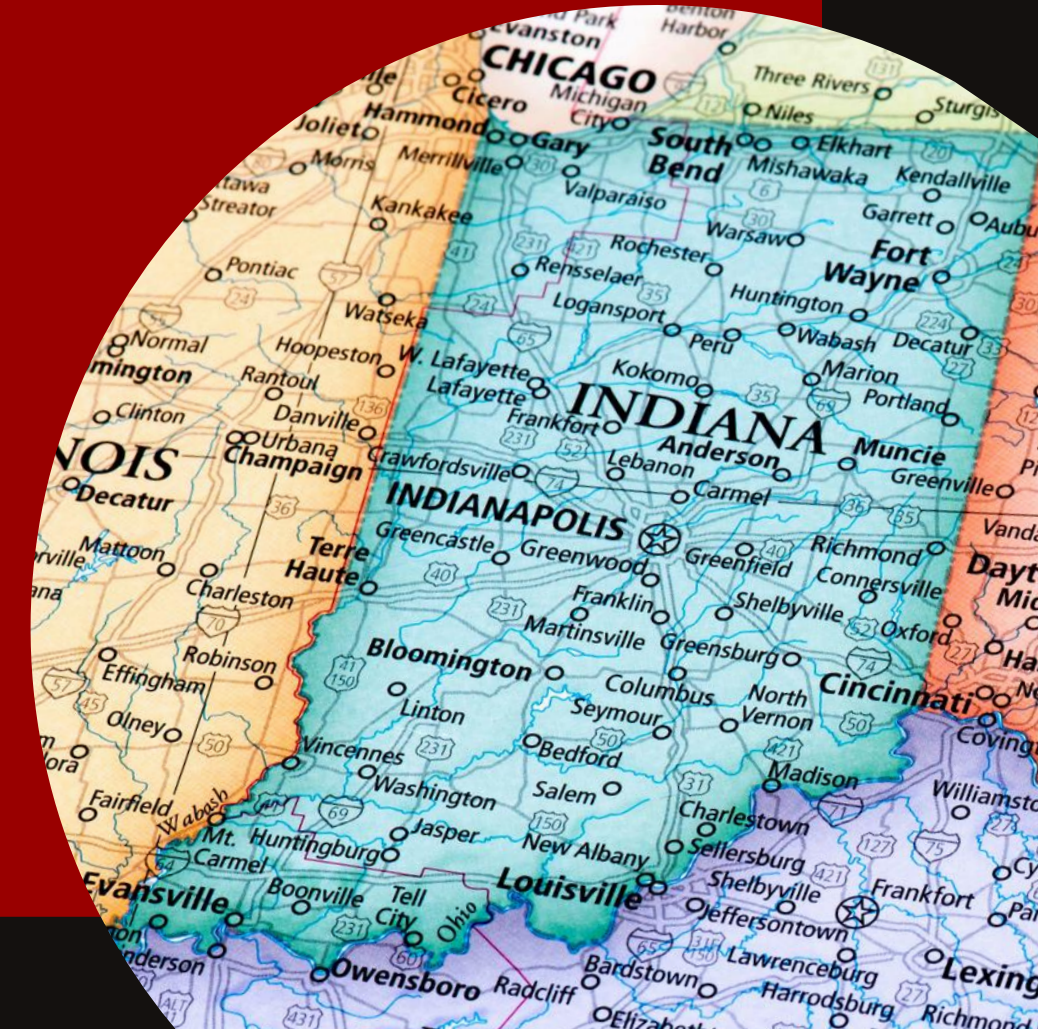

Riley Hospital for Children
Indiana University Health

317-278-8434
aaaprogram@iupui.edu

Benefits of AAA

- Consultation from experienced psychiatrists, psychologists, and LCSWs with expertise in adolescent substance use and mental health at no cost
- Statewide access to multidisciplinary clinical team for:
  - Comprehensive diagnostic evaluation
  - Outpatient psychotherapy (virtual or in-person)
  - Medication management
  - Case management
- Available 9am - 5pm EDT, Monday - Friday

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHIATRY

Riley Hospital for Children
Indiana University Health

317-278-8434
aaaprogram@iupui.edu

Adolescent Addiction Access (AAA) Program

*This program is supported by Indiana
FSSA-DMHA.*

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHIATRY

Riley Hospital for Children
Indiana University Health

317-278-8434
aaaprogram@iupui.edu